Kathmandu, April 8, 2025 - MetLife Nepal has kicked off its 2025 Recruitment Campaign for Life Insurance Consultants with an exciting opportunity for people across the country to embark on a rewarding and meaningful career in life insurance. With the inspiring theme “Now it’s your turn to make a difference,” the campaign emphasizes how MetLife’s insurance consultants can positively impact the lives of families, communities, and the nation.

At a time when many Nepalese look abroad for career opportunities, MetLife Nepal’s recruitment campaign reminds us that meaningful and rewarding careers exist right here at home. As life insurance consultants, individuals can achieve financial independence, professional recognition, and personal fulfillment while making a difference in their own communities. This is a call for Nepalese to stay in their own country, build their futures, and contribute to a purposeful career that assures a confident future.

A career at MetLife Nepal opens doors to countless opportunities. Aspirants receive international standard training on insurance and sales, experience a multinational work culture, and have access to continuous learning and growth opportunities. Beyond financial success, this profession carries a deeper responsibility—to provide protection and financial security to individuals and families. Life insurance consultants play a crucial role in helping people prepare for life’s uncertainties, ensuring that dreams are protected, and futures remain secure.
